

Two RSJG Attorneys Elected Directors of Boys and Girls Club

Recently, R. Mac Freeman and Richard L. McBride were elected as directors of the Boys & Girls Club of Montgomery. This organization has served Montgomery County for over fifty years. The Boys & Girls Club aims to enrich the lives of Montgomery's youth, especially those from disadvantaged homes and circumstances. A "youth guidance" program, the Boys & Girls Club of Montgomery reaches an average of 2,500 youth each year. The program provides tutoring, sports, arts & crafts, and a wide variety of other activities. RSJG is proud to be represented in this program by Mr. Freeman and Mr. McBride.
