

Tyson and Dees Granted Summary Judgment by Supreme Court

On July 10, 2015, the Alabama Supreme Court affirmed summary judgment with no opinion in favor of a Rushton Stakely client. The case involved allegations of medical malpractice against the hospital. Fred Tyson and Stephen Dees handled the case on behalf of the hospital.